

FIRE-IN

Fire and REscue Innovation Network

Improve the national and European Fire &
Rescue capability
development
process

Stronger guidance from practitioners

5 Thematic Working Groups + involvement of Associated Experts

A. Search and Rescue (SAR) and emergency Medical Response

B. Structures fires

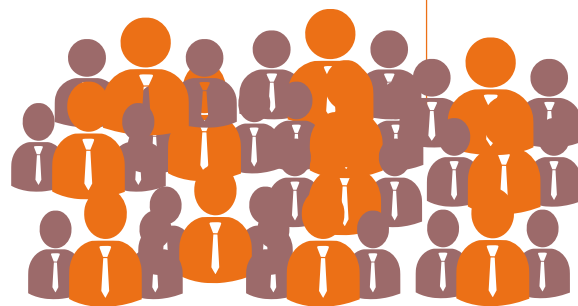

C. Vegetation fires

D. Natural disasters

E. CBRNE

FIRE-IN

Associated Experts (AE) community

(international community including key thematic practitioner experts from public, private, NGOs bodies, and representative of thematic working groups from existing networks)

1000 experts expected

Vegetation fire workshop keywords

Engage population

Coordination

Cooperation

E.U.

Standardization

Rural economy

Situation assessment

Coordination

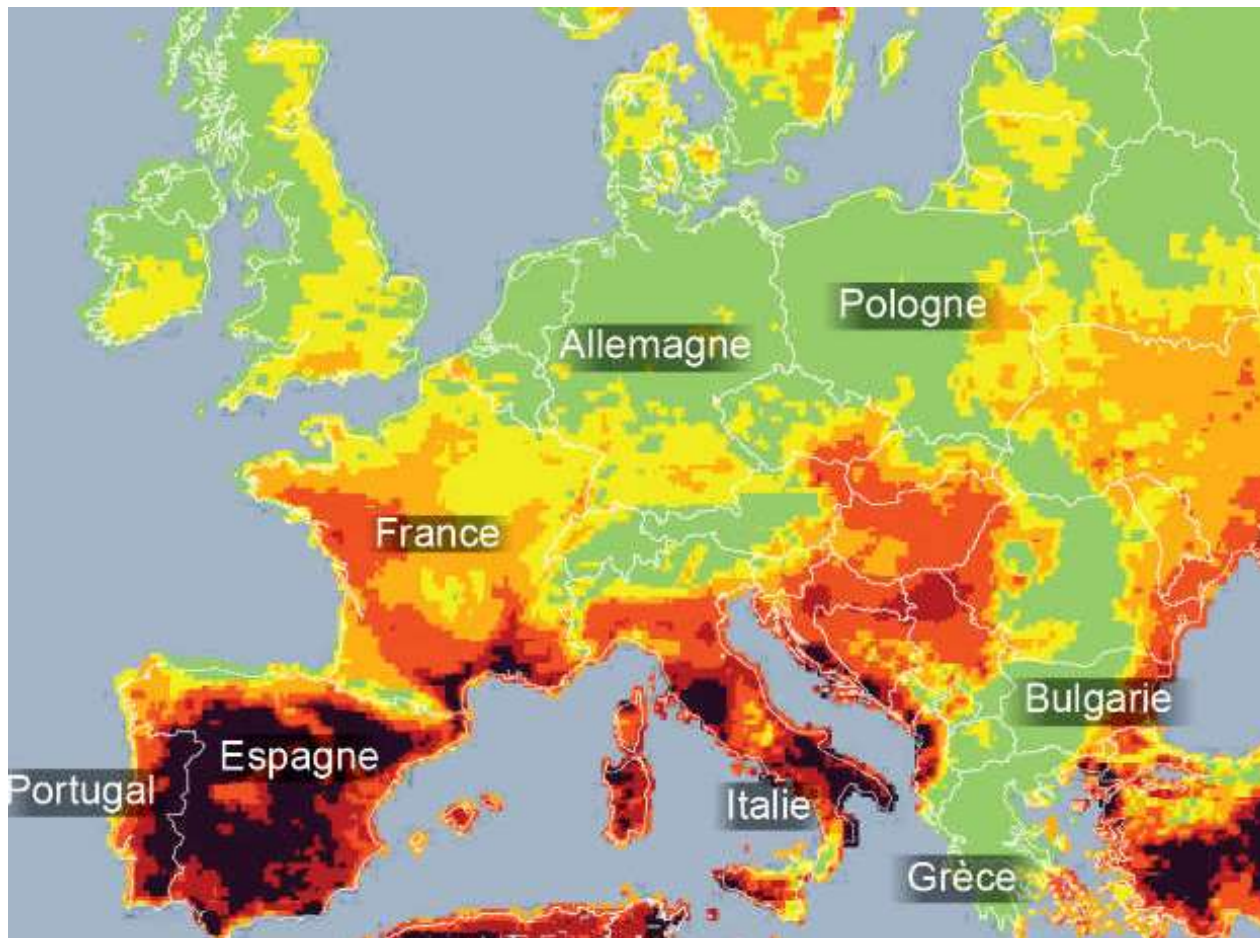

- Between agencies / operators
 - Share the strategies
 - Standardization

Expectations from Europe!

Cooperation

- International collaboration
 - Knowledges exchanges
 - Fire behaviour specialists

Engage population

- Communities
 - Policy makers
 - Manage the land

FIRE-IN

Contact :
sebastien.lahaye@safeccluster.com

FIRE-IN has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 Research and Innovation programme under grant agreement N°740 575

